

GERBER GROUP

December 4, 2017

Time Out

Where to eat Christmas dinner in NYC

You've hit the best holiday pop-ups, gawked over the festive Christmas window displays and bought tickets for the best Christmas shows—now all you have to do is find great restaurants for Christmas Eve and Christmas dinner. NYC restaurants have your back, whether you're searching for a traditional Feast of the Seven Fishes on December 24th or a classic Christmas roast on December 25th.

Irvington

Located on the ground floor of W New York – Union Square, Irvington offers a Mediterranean-influenced menu of New American classics highlighting fresh, locally-sourced ingredients from the neighboring Union Square Greenmarket.

Price: $65 per person

Christmas miracle: Poached black bass with celery root, saffron and walnut oil