Couple Up!

Yes, we all know that this is the month when cupid’s arrow hits—on Feb. 14, to be exact—but we have designed some date ideas that you can use in the Big Apple on any ole day, whenever you’re in the mood for love.

—Lois Anzelowitz Levine and Katie Labovitz

MR. PURPLE+ROCKWOOD MUSIC HALL Clink a glass or two from 15 floors above the city at Mr. Purple, the über-hip rooftop bar and restaurant at the Hotel Indigo Lower East Side. Sip specialty cocktails (the “Mr. Purple” includes Casamigos Reposado tequila and cranberry liqueur) and indulge in oysters or house guacamole before heading over to Rockwood Music Hall for an intimate rock or pop musical performance on one of the venue’s three stages. Mr. Purple, 180 Orchard St., 212.237.1790; Rockwood Music Hall, 196 Allen St., 212.477.4155