

M R .
P U R
P L E

July 17, 2017

The Best Staycations in NYC

New Yorkers, a busy-as-hell bunch as any, deserve some time off. But what if you're not craving a weekend getaway or cheap summer getaway from NYC? Luckily for you, the city itself boasts a ton of ways to escape it all. Follow our itineraries for amazing staycations that'll make you happy you didn't leave home, including culture-culture adventures, Bronx explorations, old New York vibes and much more.

Insta addict

Eat & Drink

If you don't Instagram your meal at the nearby Dimes (49 Canal St), did you really eat there? We'll never know, because it seems like every dish that comes out of this hip and healthy café winds up on the 'Gram. For an evening nightcap, head back to the hotel and imbibe at Mr. Purple, the rooftop bar that offers stiff cocktails like its namesake drink, a mix of tequila, cranberry liqueur, allspice dram, apple and lemon—and at 15 floors up, the unobstructed, photogenic views of your dreams.

