COCKTAIL HOUR

New York City is all about the view, so I love a rooftop. You can find me sipping a Clicquot Rich cocktail with cucumber on the roof of Mr. Purple when the heat picks up. mrpurplenyc.com

EXHIBITIONIST WATCHES

Calling all horologists: The time is now to ogle exceptional timepieces! From July 15-23, 178-year-old Swiss watchmaker Patek Philippe's The Art of Watches takes over Cipriani 42nd Street for an unprecedented exhibition. Stop by to see the current collection, artisan demonstrations and limited and antique pieces dating to the 16th century. patek.com

KEY TO THE CITY Nacho Figueras

The Argentine polo player returns to New York to kick off the season at the 10th Annual Veuve Clicquot Polo Classic. Here's where you'll find him when he's not in the saddle.

CUP OF JOE

I am not a big coffee drinker, but I do enjoy a cup of matcha—the powdered green tea is traditionally enjoyed by polo players before a match. My favorite spot is Chelsea's MatchaBar. matchabar.com

POWER LUNCH

The classic Italian menu at Sant Ambrosio SoHo is a favorite for my entire family. When the weather is beautiful, we prefer the outside dining area. santambrosio.com

FIELD TRIP

I like to venture outside of the city a bit and visit the Noguchi Museum, in Queens. I am a big admirer of his work, and the space itself is very peaceful. noguchimuseum.org

DARE NIGHT

The food is amazing at The Polo Bar, and the crowd is always top-notch. When my wife, Delfina, and I meet friends here, we end up staying for hours. thepolobar.com
