(CNN)—Looking for phenomenal views?

A good drink in a classy space with a hip but low-key vibe?

Whether old or new, strong cocktails, glamorous settings and beautiful scenery converge at these standout drinkeries located inside top hotels around the world.

Red2One, W Santiago (Santiago, Chile)

Co-designed by New York's Tony Chi, you could easily be fooled into thinking this sleek rooftop bar is in Midtown Manhattan -- if it weren't for the views over the snow-capped Andes.

The entire space puts a modern twist on traditional Chilean decor, fusing earthy and neutral tones with bright pops of red and glossy silver tables.

Throw in beautiful cocktails and A-list clientele, and you have the most exclusive bar in the city.

What to drink: A virgin strawberry mojito, allegedly Beyonce and Jay-Z's drink of choice when visiting the bar.
