The Best Rooftop Bars in NYC

THE ROOF AT VICEROY

The Gerber Group has been behind some of the most swankiest venues in NYC for over 20 years and their Viceroy Hotel top floor bar, The Roof, certainly does not disappoint. Inspired by luxury airliners, The Roof's décor is heavy on wood with imagery of the sky and clouds to evoke an above the clouds experience with breathtaking views of Central Park. Located in Midtown West, the bar offerings are well curated with small-batch spirits, regional craft brews and an ever-changing selection of seasonal cocktails.
