a message from Shelly...

Brooklyn Diner USA: The Finer Diner turns back the culinary clock to a slower, saner time when we all led simpler lives and had simpler tastes in everything. Especially food.

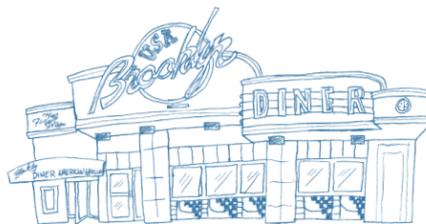

The idea here is to celebrate "American Ethnic" food. We're talking classic American dishes that have a distinctive ethnic personality -- be it Italian, Jewish, Spanish, Arabic, German, Irish, or any of the other ethnic groups that enrich the American melting pot. Food that isn't trendy or cutesy, isn't overrun with herbs and liqueurs whose names you can't pronounce. The kind of food that could make you feel good about the world simply by the way the house smelled while it was being prepared.

Brooklyn means melting pot. And so it was the logical place to start when we began our search for the ultimate "American Ethnic" recipes. We spent two years digging into Brooklyn's rich and diverse culinary history (even, on occasion, getting recipes from old-timers living in Brooklyn's nursing homes).

Brooklyn, more than any major city (and Brooklyn, if it weren't a part of New York would be the fifth largest city in America), has resisted the homogenization that has rendered so many American cities indistinguishable. Brooklyn is still, well, Brooklyn. With all its heart, spirit, personality, and moxie. Could Barbra Streisand, Spike Lee, Woody Allen and the Dodgers come from anywhere else? Don't bet on it.

So, please enjoy yourself while you're here. And one more thing: don't be a stranger.

Sheldon M. Fireman
