

Restaurant Week starts Monday and runs through summer

July 16, 2021 • Restaurant/Bar News

NYC Restaurant Week, which is chaired by our own Tracy Nieporent from Tribeca Grill and Nobu, will start Monday, July 19, and run through Sunday, August 22 — essentially changing the name to Restaurant Weeks.

There are 525 restaurants participating citywide and Tracy sent the list of downtowners, below. You will want to click through the site to see the deals, but for most of ours it's $21 for lunch and $39 for dinner, Monday to Friday only. Start here for all the downtown restaurants or search by name. NB: Fidi is called "Lower Manhattan" in their lexicon.
