

Three Owls

CATERING MENU

ABOUT US

Three Owls Market is a market and cafe in the West Village that represents our vision of what a modern deli can look like in New York. Open all day, we serve a rotating menu of prepared foods, rotisserie, sandwiches, large plates, housemade pastries, coffee, beer, and natural wines, with a grocery for both pantry staples and new discoveries.

Our food is inspired by our favorite eating places: small-town specialty food shops, European markets, and classic New York delis. Here at 800 Washington Street, we love nothing more than feeding our neighborhood and its visitors in our shop. We look forward to bringing Three Owls to you with our abundant, Mediterranean-inspired catering. Happy eating!
