Granary Tavern Hires New Executive Chef Chef Zachary Osborn Takes Over Granary Tavern's Kitchen

Boston, MA, February 6, 2018 - Granary Tavern is happy to announce they have hired Zachary Osborn as their new executive chef. Zachary has an extensive culinary history which began at the age of 14 when he discovered his passion for cuisine. He received his culinary degree from Johnson and Wales University in Providence, Rhode Island and you may have enjoyed his food at L'Espalier, formerly of Boylston Street.

"I want to take the cuisine of Granary Tavern to the next level by sourcing more local produce and protein and create more technique driven food."

The Glynn Hospitality Group is a family run organization that operates some of Boston's most iconic restaurants, bars, pubs and entertainment venues. For over 35 years, Glynn Hospitality establishments have been considered synonymous with great food, engaging service and memorable experiences. With venues located in the Back Bay, the Financial District, Faneuil Hall, Union Street and the Rose F. Kennedy Greenway, great times and true New England encounters are always just steps away.
