THE CONCEPT

An innovative concept from chef José Andrés, China Poblano at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas combines the flavors of Mexico and China to create a breakthrough restaurant experience that encompasses both authentic dishes and inspired new favorites.

THE FLAVORS

Here, noodles and tacos come together in a festive, stylish setting. Guacamole is made to order and served alongside hand cut noodles with delectable sauces. The flavor profiles, though seemingly incongruous, works in the best, unexpected way.

CELEBRATE WITH CHINA POBLANO

China Poblano's modern, urban identity celebrates the colorful histories of China and Mexico, highlighting the street food-centric cultures. Hidden projectors display changing famous faces from both countries, and the ceiling is lined with 100+ bicycle wheels alongside hand blown red lanterns. Guests enter the restaurant through a three-dimensional Buddha sculpture and the periphery of countertops is inspired by traditional Mexican tile.

Main Dining

With design by SEED Design Studio, the China Poblano space is playful and casual. The ceiling is lined with 100 bicycle wheels an everyday element relevant to the street cultures of both China and Mexico and often seen in food markets. China Poblano's modern and urban identity is emphasized through bold red concert floors and red lamps, also China's national color.

Restaurant Buyout

Our main dining space inescapably expresses the interaction and movement of the Chinese and Mexican cultures in a dynamic way, and invites guests to experience an urban park enthused setting within the resort.
