Among those who won't be in the house when the Kiss Kruise docks in Vegas this weekend: Wyoming's greatest punk band ever, Teenage Bottlerocket. Don't get mad, Kiss fans, these dudes are just kidding, their fast-and-not-so-furious, Ramones-indebted repertoire always delivered with tongues planted firmly in cheek. It's the 75th anniversary of the U.S. Senate Special Committee on Organized Crime in Interstate Commerce, better known as the Kefauver Hearings, in Las Vegas. Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee interviewed witnesses about alleged mob involvement in local casinos in the second-floor courtroom of what's now the Mob Museum. To commemorate that, the museum is offering free admission for Nevada residents, and buy-one-get-one admission for nonresidents, on Saturday. Guests that day will receive 10 percent off food and drinks inside The Underground speakeasy and Starlight Plaza.

Celebrated downtown Vegas pizzeria to open at off-Strip resort

Red Rock Resort is reimagining and elevating the idea of food court pizza with some Brooklyn swagger, a thick slice of Sicily and a little love from grandma. Good Pie, the celebrated Las Vegas pizzeria known for its way with a host of styles — New York, Sicilian, grandma, Detroit, gluten-free and more — is planning to open an outpost in the food court of the property in spring.

Good Pie forms part of the ongoing culinary refresh at Red Rock. News of its arrival follows word that Randy's Donuts, the famed Los Angeles doughnut shop, would replace Federal Donuts & Chicken at the food court and that beloved Hearthstone Kitchen would be returning to the space it occupied before it closed in 2023 to make way for Leoncito, which shuttered in September after less than two years at Red Rock.

Where to dine out for Thanksgiving in Las Vegas

It's the annual turkey tussle, so to speak. Cooking at home? Dirty dishes ensue, but so do leftovers. Dining out? There are no leftovers, but also no shopping, cooking, cleanup or potential turkey triage. Drunken relatives? They're a possibility either way.

If you've decided to dine out, here are some options for restaurants making fare of fowl (and much more) with à la carte dishes, prix fixe menus or dinner plates on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27. Reservations made well in advance are typically required. This listing will be updated as the holiday approaches.

Green Valley Ranch: Bottiglia Cucina & Enoteca is presenting a three-course prix fixe menu with choice of butternut squash soup or cranberry and goat cheese salad, choice of platter with white and dark turkey meat and sides or roasted prime rib with jus, and panettone bread pudding for dessert, for $85, from 1 to 9 p.m.

Thanksgiving 2025: Where to find dining, last-minute meal options in Las Vegas

Las Vegas (KSNV) — Thanksgiving week has arrived, and numerous businesses across the valley are providing last-minute meal options and dining plans for those seeking to celebrate the holiday outside their homes.

BOTTIGLIA CUCINA & ENOTECA

Located inside Green Valley Ranch Resort Spa and Casino, Bottiglia Cucina will celebrate Thanksgiving with a Tuscan-inspired three-course prix fixe dinner priced at $85 per person.

The plate will be served from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursday, November 27, and will include a traditional Thanksgiving platter or prime rib options as the main course.

Other notable favorites include a choice of butternut squash soup or cranberry and goat cheese salad, and a panettone bread pudding to top it off.

When the weather is mild, the patio offers cozy seating in the company of either heating lamps or fans. A bright and airy private dining room can accommodate parties. Crown Perth unveils Las Vegas-based Side Piece Pizza and Tekka Bar as latest Urban Food District 2026 arrivals

Two Australian-firsts will be on the menu at Crown Perth in 2026 as the highly anticipated Urban Food District unveils Las Vegas-based eateries Side Piece Pizza and Tekka Bar as its latest international additions.

Opening early next year, the food hub is set to re-shape Crown Perth's dining offering and marks the precinct's largest investment in almost a decade.

Side Piece Pizza – not to be confused with Side Piece Deli in Swanbourne – will serve up New York-style pizza and is expected to become a go-to for casual catch-ups, or late night, post-flutter feeds.

Clique Hospitality Founder and CEO Andy Masi, behind Side Piece Pizza's entry to Australia, said the brand's launch Down Under "gives local pizza lovers a new opportunity to enjoy authentic, New York city-style slices without the long flight."

Can you share some speakeasy spots and how to get in?

The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas is well-known for speakeasy spots: Beauty & Essex: If you didn't know about the restaurant, you would only notice a functioning pawn shop. To access the speakeasy, you will need to step through the unmarked door in the corner. Ghost Donkey: At first glance, this seems to be a janitorial closet behind public seating within our Block 16 Food Hall between Hattie B's Hot Chicken and Lardo. Ski Lodge: An easily missed door with a small tile featuring a skier connected to our unique entertainment restaurant Superfrico. The Barbershop Cuts & Cocktails: Yet another functioning venue operating as an actual barbershop where you may enjoy a drink during your haircut. Simply walk past the barbers and patrons to go through what seems to be a bathroom door. A few other noteworthy locations: Easy's Cocktail Lounge at Aria, located within Easy Donuts & Coffee. Mäs Por Favor Taqueria y Tequila: Located in Chinatown at The Center at Spring Mountain following a longer hallway behind the initial taco shop façade. Here Kitty Kitty Vice Den at Resorts World Las Vegas: The entryway is on the back wall of Fuhu Cha Chaan Teng in the Famous Foods Street Eats Food Hall.

GOLDEN GROOVE

BY GABRIELA RODRIGUEZ

Who says the party has to stop on Sunday? In a bid to re-energize the Las Vegas nightlife scene during the quieter days of the week, the Cosmopolitan and Clique Hospitality have revived Clique Bar & Lounge with a complete overhaul and a whole new party. Since reopening in August, the space has transformed into a glittering, disco-inspired haven designed to keep the good times rolling.

Marketing director Brea Moore says those groovy, disco-era accents were fully intentional. The re-vamped lounge, designed by award-winning visionary Peter Max Bowden, is a fusion of old-school glam and modern opulence.

Upon entering, the first thing that grabs your attention is the bar's sunburst backdrop, an illuminated mirror that invites you to pick your poison. The room itself is bathed in rich golds and deep hues, with velvety seating that wraps around tables for larger groups. And at the center, a massive golden disco ball casts its glittering glow.

That's where Monday Night Fever comes in. Clique's new weekly party draws inspiration directly from the room's design.

"With disco being at the forefront of our Monday Night Fever party, it's a combination of disco music mixed into some familiar hits that people are more likely to dance to," says Moore. "We are tailoring to a crowd of all different types of people."

And it works. DJs blend tracks from Durand Jones & the Indications, The Gap Band, The Weeknd and Evelyn "Champagne" King, to name a few. As the night unfolds, groups of people crowd up to the bar, drinks in hand, laughing and dancing, as the infectious energy of the room sweeps them onto the dance floor.

"That environment sort of puts you into this atmosphere of luxury," Moore says. "And that's also, coincidentally, our tagline for the venue: luxury on the rocks."

The cocktails mirror the space's sleek, upscale vibe. Classic drinks like the French 75 ($18) and Old Fashioned ($21) are staples, but the Porn Star Martini ($20) steals the show. Made with Grey Goose vodka, Passoã, passion fruit, and a prosecco sidecar, it's as flirty as it is fancy.

For something a little more fun, the Don Sandia ($17) comes served in a hollowed-out cucumber, rimmed with tajin, and filled with Flecha Azul Tequila, Cointreau, watermelon and lemon. And the Jelloranges ($17) are a throwback to that house party classic but elevated with Ciroc vodka and orange cream and poured into orange peels then sliced into bite-sized portions.

The food menu, too, is designed to complement the vibrant party atmosphere, with items like spicy tuna crispy rice ($20) and Wagyu sliders ($26) that hit the spot whether you're dancing or just enjoying the scene. For something a little lighter, try the blistered shishito peppers ($17) or the mini Maine lobster rolls ($32).

With its sultry design, killer cocktails and vibey mix of music, Clique Bar & Lounge makes us ask ourselves, why wait for the weekend?

For those more comfortable with a $13 starter shot of Kentucky straight bourbon, there's a speakeasy inside the Cosmopolitan that's a cut above both literally and metaphorically. A working barbershop by day and live music lounge by night, The Barbershop (barbershoplv.com) is a sharp 180 from Cosmo's neo-retro lobby lounge. Actually, when it takes slipping through a janitor's closet to get inside, we're talking something unlike any lounge anywhere.

Las Vegas beyond the signs: the city that reinvents itself with every light.

The glittering capital transforms every experience into a spectacle — from immersive art to grand shows, from historical museums to unforgettable aerial views.

And when the grand spectacles fade, Vegas reveals its most intimate magic in the softest, most subdued havens. It's in these settings—like The Barbershop, a secret speakeasy behind barbershop facades where the mixology is as sharp as the barbers' razors, or the Clique Lounge, with its elegance that transforms a simple drink into a ceremony—that the night whispers its most refined secrets. Here, you realize the city never sleeps; it merely changes stage, rehearsing new acts for a select audience.

DRINK IN LAS VEGAS TO WELCOME THE NEW SEASON

• Fall just screams brown spirits and cigars, and no place does this better than Eight Lounge at Resorts World Las Vegas, which recently unveiled new fall cocktails. Some of the new treats include The Life's A Rye-It, spiced with Russell's Reserve 6-year rye, Grand Marnier, tamarind, chili, demerara and lemon, and the Winter Stardust with Angel's Envy bourbon, coffee liqueur, crème de cacao and bitters with chocolate shavings. One of the Strip's most unique bar and lounge experiences is about to get a whole lot more fun this week. Gatsby's Cocktail Lounge, which provides some serious retro vibes complete with DJs and parties, also has some serious surprises in store for guests on Nov. 12, National Happy Hour Day.

From 4-6 p.m. Nov. 12, Gatsby's offers the following cocktails for just $12: the Black Market Whiskey Old-Fashioned, made with Black Market rye, Demerara, orange and Angostura bitters; the vodka espresso martini, a blend of vodka, Frangelico liqueur and espresso, all sweetened with vanilla; the vodka lemon drop martini, a classic made with citrus vodka, triple sec and simple syrup; and the Oaxaca Old-Fashioned, a wonderfully flavorful concoction made with reposado tequila, mezcal and agave, all topped with orange and chocolate bitters. The happy hour also offers select glasses of wine and champagne for $8.

Any of these libations makes a wonderful accompaniment to the ambience of Gatsby's, where the elegant design is highlighted by giant, color-changing orbs overhead, all super-charged by DJs providing danceable music starting at 10 p.m. Thursdays through Saturdays. Sometimes the venue will even provide themed nights depending on the concert schedule at nearby Resorts World Theater.

And you'll want some light bites to enjoy with that cocktail! Luckily Gatsby's has expanded its happy hour menu to include edamame and shishito peppers, made with yuzu salt and a sudachi emulsion; hamachi crispy rice drizzled in ponzu sauce; and a two-piece cheese and charcuterie board with manchego and serrano cheese.

Whatever your reason for visiting Gatsby's this week, know this: It's a popular spot. While there's plenty of seating, including bar and high-top tables, lounge seating with tables can be booked online (and it's highly suggested on weekends). And while Gatsby's shines in handcrafted cocktails, the lounge is truly celebrated for its celebration of champagne, offering 11 different vintages by the glass. "We offer a great list of vintage champagnes with approachable price points," said Scott Diel, marketing director. "You'd find them at high-end, white-tablecloth restaurants, not something that you'd normally find at a cocktail lounge."
