..... OUR STORY

Welcome to 4505 Burgers & BBQ. 4505 Meats began as a whole animal meat company in San Francisco, founded by Ryan Farr with immeasurable help from family and friends in 2009. Today, we partner with farmers and ranchers to produce the highest quality BBQ from animals raised humanely and with care. Equipped with one of the area's last remaining historic wood-fired barbecue pits, we are informed by the traditions and styles that have come before us. From 4505's very beginning when Ryan started selling Chicharrones at the Farmer's Market, we have strived to keep it simple and always follow our stomachs. We respect those who've come before us, but we do things our own way, the 4505 way.
