BOURTARI MOSCHOFILERO 2023 - DIFFERENT & DARING

A Greek white that doesn't just whisper "summer" — it sings it. This benchmark Moschofilero bursts with white rose, orange blossom, and a bright snap of grapefruit, all carried on a feather-light body and zesty acidity. It's crisp, floral, and delightfully refreshing — the kind of wine that turns a warm afternoon into a breezy escape.

Frequently decorated on the world stage (including a shiny Mundus Vini Gold), this is Greece showing off — and doing it well. Designed to be enjoyed young, it's perfect as an apéritif or whenever you want something bright, aromatic, and just a little daring.

Take the adventure for a spin with a glass for $10, or dive all the way in with the bottle for $40

MASTROBERARDINO LACRYMA ROSSO 2023

A red born on the dramatic slopes of Mount Vesuvius deserves a little flair — and this one delivers. Made entirely from Piediroso, the grape locals lovingly call "the little red foot," this light-to-medium-bodied beauty brims with bright red cherry, raspberry, and plum, all dusted with smoky, earthy, volcanic minerality from those ash-rich soils at 170 meters up.

Its name, Lacryma Christi — "tears of Christ" — comes from a local legend about divine tears falling on Vesuvius and blessing the vineyards. Whether you believe the myth or not, the wine certainly tastes heaven-approved: vibrant acidity, gentle tannins, and a freshness that makes it wildly drinkable. Think of it as the elegant, easygoing cousin to the region's bolder Aglianico wines. A natural match for Pizza Margherita, but honestly, it's charming enough to sip all on its own.

Take a daring detour with a glass for $14, or enjoy the whole volcanic journey for $56

WHISKEY FLIGHTS

BLUEGRASS BOURBON | 30

Woodford Reserve | Michter's Small Batch | 1792 Small Batch

Three Kentucky classics that show how mash-bill tweaks and barrel regimes shape flavor—from Woodford's toasted oak to 1792's high-rye snap.

RYE REVIVAL | 28

Elijah Craig Straight Rye | High West Double Rye | Sazerac 6 Yr

A spice lover's progression: sweet-minty (Elijah Craig) → herbal-peppery (Double Rye) → classic dill & baking spice (Sazerac)

SMOKE & HEATHER SCOTCH | 34

Glenlivet 12 Yr | Laphroaig 10 Yr | Talisker Storm

Starts fruity-floral, then ramps up maritime smoke and island peat—perfect for guests exploring Scotch's flavor spectrum.

BOLD NORTH FLIGHT | 24
