NYC Restaurant Week is back for summer, giving families another chance to try some of the city's best restaurants at prix-fixe prices. We've updated our guide with this season's participating restaurants, including easy family dinners, Broadway-friendly spots, and places worth saving for a special occasion.

At a Glance:

- NYC Restaurant Week runs July 20–August 16, 2026
- Prix-fixe menus are available for $30, $45, and $60
- We picked restaurants that make sense for families — whether you're bringing younger kids, heading to a show, or planning a special dinner

Best NYC Restaurant Week Spots for Birthdays, Celebrations & Special Nights Out

Sometimes Restaurant Week is just the nudge you need to finally try the place you've walked past a hundred times. These spots are good calls for birthdays, visiting relatives, graduations, or any summer night you want to feel like an event.

Maison Madison — Battery Park City

301 S End Ave.

The French-inspired menu mixes classic bistro dishes, like Tuna Tartare Spoons, Escargots au Beurre, Branzino Côte d'Azur, with more familiar options like a Gruyère Cheeseburger Au Jus. Desserts include Mille-Feuille and Midnight in Paris.

Restaurant Week deal: Three-course dinner, $60 per person

Why parents like it: Works well after a day downtown or along the waterfront.
