MEAT MARKET

If there were any cardinal rules in our “Meats and Potatoes” business, the phrase “Steak goes best with Cabernet” would probably be one of them. This may have been true when our founder, Alan Stillman opened Smith & Wollensky in the 1970’s. In this section named “Meat Market,” our Wine Director has hand-picked a short but diverse list of wines outside of the Cabernet domain.

QUALITY WINE

Beginning in 2006 with the opening of Quality Meats, we launched a vision to feature our own, private red wine label to best complement our menu. That commitment has led to the creation of our very own “Quality Wine.”

RIDGE ZINFANDEL

Since Paul Draper first became Chief Winemaker in 1969, Ridge has been synonymous with two wines: its Monte Bello Estate Blend in the heart of Santa Cruz Mountains, and its Zinfandel from Sonoma County. Despite his recent retirement, these wines carry the essence of classic California with their grace and understated power.

“Lytton Springs” 2017 Dry Creek Valley	115

AGLIANICO

Often described as Nebbiolo of the South, Aglianico was originally brought to Italy by Greek settlers in the time of Ancient Rome. With complex aromatics, sturdy and structure, and ability to age decades, these wines may be reminiscent of Barolo, but with an understated power that perfectly describes the climate of Southern Italy.
