

Inside the box, however, was the best takeout ever. The crispy potato puffs ($4.25) were crispy and soft with great savory, creamy flavor.

The grilled Ecuadoran shrimp ($15.50) were perfectly cooked and sweet enough to balance the spicy rub.

Briana's grilled flank steak ($15.50) was also perfect, and surprisingly tender, if a bit salty.

After the meal, my anticipation phobia is gone.
