7 Cozy Bars in NYC to Warm Up In

From fireplaces to libraries and lodges, these bars are perfect for heating things up while the temperatures drop. We've rounded up the top spots in the city for cuddling up with cocktail or barhopping with bae.

Clicquot Chalet at Mr. Purple

Mr. Purple is transformed into a funky après-ski lodge in the sky. Think vivid purple deer heads, digital fireplaces, and plenty of blankets for bundling. Step outside onto the terrace and guests will find a larger-than-life snow globe decked-out in Veuve Clicquot-themed ski lodge decor, complete with its very own Champagne bar. Enjoy seasonal hot sips and specialty Veuve Clicquot Champagne cocktails, plus plenty of chocolate and cheese fondue to warm your soul.
