

OUR ROOMS

Our guests will feel like they are entertaining friends at home in our private dining rooms and intimate spaces. Located on the second floor where the Maylie family lived from 1876 through 1986, two charming rooms can be activated separately or together to create a flow that keeps the party going. Each room is flooded in natural light with fireplaces and ornate molding. French doors lead to a wrap-around balcony overlooking our courtyard and bustling Poydras Street.

WISTERIA ROOM

*42 person seated
50 person reception*

Located on the O'Keefe Street side of the property and just through the Palmetto room, Wisteria is an ideal setting for reception-style gatherings, seated dinners or luncheons. Decked out with a premier audio-visual system, displaying presentations or connecting your playlist is only a click away. Best part — you can expand your event into open-air with our optional private balcony overlooking Poydras Street.

All rooms can be combined. 84 seated | 100 reception

Setup for reception-style events will include seating for up to 50% of your total guest count, leaving space for your guests to mingle*

PALMETTO ROOM

42 person seated
50 person reception

This enchanting space is perfect for customization. Whether you're hosting a semi-private seated gathering at our Chef's table or a fully private event, our Palmetto room is adaptable to accommodate a variety of seating arrangements. Additionally, you have the option to extend your event into the open air by adding our private balcony as an extra feature.

All rooms can be combined. 84 seated | 100 reception

Setup for reception-style events will include seating for up to 50% of your total guest count, leaving space for your guests to mingle*

BALCONY

*25 person seated
50 person reception*

There's something about partying on a balcony in New Orleans that never gets old. Entertain above the buzz of the Central Business District on our open-air balcony that wraps around Poydras and O'Keefe streets. Dine under the stars or umbrellas, where you'll, at once feel right at home in the middle of New Orleans' downtown cityscape.

All rooms can be combined. 84 seated | 100 reception

Setup for reception-style events will include seating for up to 50% of your total guest count, leaving space for your guests to mingle*