

FINO

Dry, pale white Sherry. Try with olives, almonds, Boquerones

2001 Perez Barquero Verbenera 5

MANZANILLA

From the coastal area of Sanlucar, this dry Sherry pairs with olives, asparagus and Jamón Serrano

2001 Bodegas Baron, Xixarito en Rama 5

AMONTILLADO

Most representative of the different styles of Sherry; nutty aromas, aromatic herbs.

Dry to off-dry notes. Try with soft cheeses, Gambas or Chorizo

2007 Tomas Garcia Montilla-Moriles 7

PALO CORTADO

Amontillado on the nose, Oloroso mouth feel due to its body and structure. Cured meats, Cabrales cheese and nuts...

2005 Tomas Garcia 5

OLOROSO

Aged without "Flor", round and sweet flavors. Great with aged cheese and charcuteria

Bodegas Barbadillo, 12 yr. old 8

CREAM PX

Late harvest or sundried grapes of the Pedro Ximenez (PX) grape.

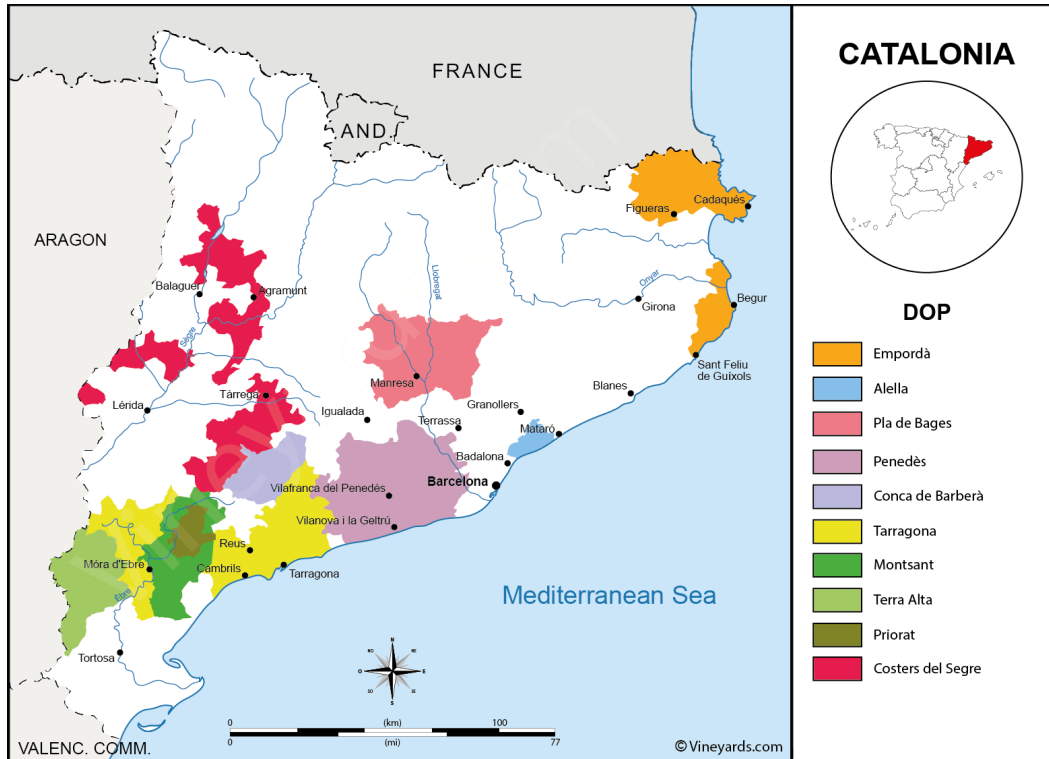

Make it the consummate dessert wine. Chocolate anyone?

2015 Valdespino El Candado 7

2013 Lustau East India Solera Reserva 5

ESPUMOSO

Cava is Spain's answer to Champagne with incredible value. Higher end Cavas rival top flight Champagnes.

ATLANTIC

A cooler climate prevails here but farther from the coast, some of Spain's most interesting reds can be found. These are some of the most difficult vineyards to manage. Styles can vary but think of raspberry and red fruit notes with peppery, licorice hints. If you enjoy Cabernet Franc or Pinot Noir with an edge, this section might be for you.
