SPAIN'S ICONIC VINO DE GUARDA

MARQUÉS DE MURRIETA

Among the most historic estates in Rioja, Marqués de Murrieta stands as a pioneer of Spanish fine wine. The estate introduced Bordeaux-style winemaking to the region, shaping the foundation of modern Rioja. With a legacy built on tradition and excellence, its flagship 'Castillo Ygay' is one of Spain's most celebrated wines while 'Capellania' stands alongside as one of the regions top white wines. Expanding beyond Rioja, the winery has also made its mark in Rías Baixas with Pazo de Barrantes, producing world-class Albariño.

VEGA SICILIA

Among the most revered names in Spanish wine, Tempos Vega Sicilia stands as a symbol of prestige and excellence. The estate revolutionized Ribera del Duero with its age-worthy, Bordeaux-influenced wines, setting the standard for the region. Their flagship Unico is among the world's most sought-after wines, renowned for its depth, elegance, and longevity. Alongside it, Valbuena offers a more approachable yet equally refined expression of the estate, while Alión and Pintia showcases a modern, pure Tempranillo style with power and finesse.

2019, RIOJA, LA RIOJA - TEMPRANILLO +

A modern Rioja of remarkable depth and poise, blending Tempranillo, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Graciano from the famed Canajas vineyard. Dense black fruit, violet, and graphite unfold over silky tannins and polished French oak, balancing opulence with elegance. A statement wine from one of Spain's most historic estates—absolutely decadent now.

LOPEZ DE HEREDIA

Founded in 1877, this producer remains a top-caliber family owned and operated boutique bodega based in the heart of rioja. Billed as "so classic as to be cutting edge" as their historic focus on terroir-driven expressions of single-vineyard bottlings in a region otherwise known for blending has provided a flame of inspiration to the next generation of winemakers.

NIEPOORT-BUÇACO

The Buçaco Palace Hotel, a Neo-Manueline landmark built as a royal palace and converted into a hotel in 1917, has long guarded one of Portugal’s most distinctive wine traditions. From its founding, the hotel produced its own red and white wines (later joined by a rosé), crafted in its cellar using traditional methods that remain virtually unchanged. These wines are uniquely defined by their unconventional blend of grapes from both Dão and Bairrada, yielding elegant, long-lived bottles that were once served only to hotel guests. For decades, they were rare treasures whispered about among wine lovers, but thanks to a partnership with Dirk Niepoort, limited quantities are now available in the United States—making Buçaco wines one of Portugal’s most storied and singular secrets.

OCCIDENTAL

Occidental Vineyards, founded by renowned vintner Steve Kistler, is dedicated exclusively to producing world-class Pinot Noir from the West Sonoma Coast. With a philosophy rooted in purity and site expression, Occidental crafts wines solely from its own single vineyards, ensuring each bottling captures the distinctive character of its origin. The winemaking process is intentionally minimalist—fermentations are driven by native yeasts, extractions are gentle to preserve freshness, and aging occurs in carefully selected French oak barrels to enhance complexity without overshadowing the vibrant coastal fruit. The result is a collection of Pinot Noirs that exude precision, energy, and a profound sense of place, reflecting the extreme maritime terroir that defines Occidental’s identity.

DOMAINE TEMPIER 'LULU & LUCIEN'
2022 BANDOL - MOURVÈDRE
45 / GLASS

Domaine Tempier is one of Provence’s most beloved estates, rooted in Bandol since 1834. It really came to fame in the 1940s thanks to Lucie “Lulu” Tempier and her husband Lucien Peyraud, who helped put Bandol on the map and championed Mourvèdre as the region’s star grape. Tempier has been organic since the 1970s, with a hands-off winemaking style: native yeasts, big old oak barrels, and a focus on letting the vineyards speak for themselves. Under the guidance of winemaker Daniel Ravier since 2000, the domaine continues to set the gold standard for soulful, authentic Bandol wines, mixing tradition with a warm Provençal spirit.
