WINGMAN IS LOCALLY OWNED

Brendon Mendoza, the owner of our restaurant, brings over 30 years of experience in the restaurant industry, having worked at various levels of operations and multi-unit management all across the country. Despite his extensive experience, his decision to open a chicken wing restaurant was driven by his personal love for this style of food, which he enjoyed wherever he lived.

Brendon's commitment to his family and community is also evident in his decision to return home to the Walla Walla valley after 15 years away. He wanted to support his parents in caring for his special needs brother. In 2002, he graduated from Washington State University School of Hospitality, further enhancing his knowledge and skills in the industry. He earned the nickname Mr. Walla Walla (2nd Runner Up) from a charity event that he danced to "All About that Bass" and came in third. His two daughters Tessa (13) & Savannah (7) hope to work in the restaurant as they they get older.

We take pride in sourcing local ingredients whenever possible. A.R. Teals Produce and Knight's Busy Bees local honey are just a couple of the suppliers we work with. We sponsor local teams, donate to charities around town, and support our community events. To ensure that our prices remain competitive, we offer a combination of Happy Hour discounts, specials, and promotions. You can sign up for these exciting offers below.

Above all, our staff is dedicated to providing you with an exceptional dining experience. Hospitality is our passion, and your satisfaction is our top priority. If you have any concerns or issues, please don't hesitate to reach out to Brendon directly at brendon@wingmanbirdz.com
