HOLLYWOOD HAPPENINGS

Come for the Oscars, stay for the drinks, popcorn & more

The year's Oscars ceremony is jam-packed with nominated films that have scared us ("Get Out"), thrilled us ("Dunkirk") and made us nostalgic ("Lady Bird"). But, there are only a few that will actually take home the title of "best." It all comes to a head on Sunday, when the 90th Academy Awards — set to air at 8 p.m. on ABC — bring out Hollywood's finest to the red carpet as stars vie for the coveted titles of best actor, best actress and more.

So, grab a front-row seat at these bars, restaurants and theaters to see how well your favorite flick of the year — from "The Post" to "I, Tonya" — fares on Oscars night.

RED CARPET TREATMENT
Boulton & Watt
Walk the red carpet and get a small, golden Oscar at this party. There will be free custom popcorn and $25 bottles of prosecco. RSVP to info@boultonandwattnyc.com. 6 p.m.; 5 Ave. A, boultonandwattnyc.com and cast your ballot to predict who will take home the golden statues. The bar will have Champagne specials ($75 Moët Chandon) and free popcorn at every table. 7 p.m.; 1125 First Ave., sugareast.com
