A Fish Called Avalon

Located in the heart of the historic Art Deco District, A Fish Called Avalon's Happy Hour takes place seven days a week, from 5:30 PM 'til 7 PM. The Happy Hour menu, available at the bar, includes some of the restaurant's signature dishes, artistically crafted under the direction of Executive Chef Kal Abdalla. These include the legendary Bang Bang Shrimp, Globe Artichoke with a Tuscany Marinade, Copps Island Oysters, and more. Happy Hour appetizers range from $6 to $15. And what is Happy Hour without a cocktail (or two)? In keeping with the innovative culinary fare, the libations include an assortment of creative cocktails, all priced at $10. There is also a choice of beers at $5 per glass, and Prosecco, French Rosé, Italian Pinot Grigio, and French Merlot for $7 per glass. A Fish Called Avalon is located at 700 Ocean Drive. The restaurant is open seven days a week. Happy Hour occurs daily from 5:30 PM 'til 7 PM. For further information, please visit www.afishcalledavalon.com.
