Oyster Inn, New Zealand

A 35-minute ferry ride from Auckland drops you at Waiheke Island, now home to this rustic-lux Victorian saltbox near Oneroa Beach. Treat yourself on arrival to a cold plate of namesake Te Matuku oysters and a glass of Chenin Blanc from Gisborne—or perhaps a cold lemongrass tea on a bench in the shade of a beachfront pohutukawa tree. Rooms are spartan and bathed in whites. A vintage taxicab yellow VW bus is on hand for excursions, and golden hunks of line-caught fish and triple-fried chips at the inn's Fish & Chippery takeout window help add some color, too.
