

Sommelier's Picks

A collection of bottles that speak to place, passion, and personality—each one chosen for its story, its soul, and Mediterranean verve.

- 422W Champagne De Villepin, 'Blanc de Noirs,' Champagne NV 140
Pinot-based and quietly powerful: red apple over minerality and a touch of brioche. Fine, persistent mousse; dry, precise, and lightly saline on the finish.
- 757W Assyrtiko, Domaine Economou, 'Phi Φ,' Sitia, 2015 180
A remarkable and rare Assyrtiko that captures the essence of Crete with its balance of vibrant acidity and complex, mineral-driven texture. This wine offers a richer, more profound depth than most Assyrtikos, with hints of honeyed citrus and herbs—perfect for lamb or seafood.
- 440 Frontenac Gris and La Crescent, La Garagista, 'Harlots and Ruffians,' Vermont 2022 120
A biodynamic, alpine white with citrus blossom, bergamot, quince and golden apple over mountain herbs and saline lift. Skin contact adds texture, making it versatile at the table.
- 173 Morokanela, Vouni Panayia, 'Woman in the Wine Press,' Cyprus 2019 115
A high-altitude, skin-contact take on the rare Morokanella: notes of citrus, apricot and wild thyme and racing acidity, finishing with fine, tea-like tannin. Textural, dry, and gastronomic.
- 14B Sauvignon Blanc, Pascal Jolivet, 'Sauvage,' Sancerre 2022 180
A biodynamic, elegant pick with vibrant citrus, wild herbs, and a subtle smokiness. It captures the essence of its terroir, with complexity that goes far beyond the typical Sancerre.
- 125 Obaideh/Merwah/Cinsault, Chateau Musar, Bekaa Valley 2018 130
This cult favorite rosé offers a refreshingly layered profile with aromatic complexity, strawberry, rose, and orange blossom. It drinks like white Burgundy and pairs well with anything grilled.
- 763 Garnacha, Comando G, 'Rozas,' Sierra de Gredos 1er Cru 2020 165
Rozas dances between power and finesse. Bright red fruit, crushed herbs, and a whisper of granite minerality give it the lift and elegance of a top-tier Pinot Noir, but with a wild soul.
- 32B Nebbiolo, Altre Vie, Barolo 2019 140
Classic Barolo: rose petal and orange peel over bright red cherry and tea leaf. Fine, bright tannins and lifted acidity give precision and drive, carrying a long, mineral yet polished finish.
- 75W Domaine de Bonserine, La Viallieres, Cote Rotie, 2014 250
Violet and black raspberry layered with smoked bacon, black olive, and white pepper. Graphite-forward minerality and a gentle lift; finely etched, persistent, and mouth-watering on the finish.
- 555W Sangiovese, Tenuta di Carleone, 'Il Guercio,' Chianti Classico 2022 185
A vivid, whole-bunch Sangiovese from Radda's high slopes: crunchy red cherry and wild strawberry layered with blood orange, rose, and thyme. Sleek and mineral-lined, with fine tannins and mouth-watering brightness—perfumed, pure, and irresistibly drinkable.
