

LOVE LETTERS FROM THE MEDITERRANEAN

Begin your journey through the Mediterranean with our wines. With our curated selection from Sicily, Santorini, Tinos, Provence, Spain and more, peer into an unknown world. Here at Amali, we pride ourselves on our choice to be daring travelers, those who ask questions, who learn more, and who sincerely believe in highlighting the unsung producers.

Our most recent addition to this list comes from our travels to Tinos, a small island in the Cyclades group in the Aegean Sea. Tinos hosts four well-known wineries on the island, a large feat for an island with about eight thousand inhabitants. The island is most known for its volcanic, rocky terrain, which can be explained by two myths. The first explains that the Santorinian Volcano erupted and its flowing lava reached Tinos and cooled off, leaving rocky, granite soil. The second myth, rather, tells the story of a great battle between the Giants and Titans, which showered meteors and comets on the island. No matter which myth you believe, the terrain on Tinos provides a unique foundation for winemakers. Thus, we are proud to offer Domaine de Kalathas, a Tinos winery that produces only ten thousand bottles per year.

Whichever direction you choose with us at Amali will be spectacular, whether you tour the Greek islands, or sample the vines of Spain. Our selection of over 400 bottles will keep your travels interesting.

Happy sipping,

Despoina Karapostolaki
Kylie Monagan
