

EATER

NYC's Hottest Cocktail Bars, January 2019

A casual Japanese cocktail bar and a luxe new bar with classics join the list

by Eater Staff | Updated Dec 30, 2019, 9:50am EST

Presented by

Welcome to the Cocktail Heatmap, a guide to the hottest drinking dens of the moment across New York City. For Eater's guide to New York's top cocktail bars (both old and new), check out this list.

Added in January: HiHi Room, Oldies, Bergamo's

Added in December: NR

Ivy Lane

116 E 60th St
New York, NY 10022

(212) 641-0577

Visit Website

From the restaurant empire behind big, vibey restaurants like Philippe Chow comes Ivy Lane in a three-level space on the Upper East Side. Food runs American with French and pan-Asian influences in the second-floor dining room, but the entire first floor is dedicated to drinks. Cocktails, created by head bartender Wilmer Nolasco, include the Tropical Sherry Cobbler (oloroso and amontillado sherries, dark rum, orgeat, lemon, pineapple, blackberry) and the Spicy Little Agave Drink (chile vodka, tequila, chile liqueur, grapefruit, lime, guava).

Edward Menashy/Ivy Lane [Official Photo]

OPEN IN GOOGLE MAPS

ALSO FEATURED IN:

Where to Eat on Christmas Day in NYC

