HUNDRED ACRE

All Hundred Acre fruit comes from small vineyard plots. Each expression—parsed by soil type, rootstock, and time of harvest—ferments separately. Jayson Woodbridge performs a feat of improvisational blending, perhaps learned by osmosis from Phillipe Melka, who honed his trade at famed Bordeaux houses, Haut Brion, Chateau Petrus and Dominus in California.

MEAT MARKET

If there were any cardinal rules in our “Meat and Potato” business, the phrase “Steak goes best with Cabernet” would probably be one of them. This may have been true when our founder, Alan Stillman opened Smith & Wollensky back in the 1970’s. However, much has happened in the world of wine since then. So this begs the question: Is this Steak = Cabernet rule still the golden rule? In this section we call the Meat Market, our team has hand-picked a short but diverse list of wines that will work well with any of our cuts of steak.

Orin is his father's middle name and Swift is his mother's maiden name. Orin Swift's philosophy is that winemakers are only as good as the fruit they use. The wine makers strive to create wine that represents the broad spectrum of the California region which is evident in each of his red and white blends.

Sine Qua Non ‘The Gorgeous Victim’ 2017 Grenache California 420

Sine Qua Non 'Testa dei Cherubini' 2014 Grenache Sta. Rita 575

Elaine and Manfred Krankl have reached superstardom with their tiny production and even harder to find wines. Robert Parker called these his “unicorn wines”. The Grenaches are lighter in body but still concentrated with notes of black raspberries, dried herbs, vanilla, and licorice.
