APERITIFS & DIGESTIFS

An aperitif is a pre-meal drink specifically meant to whet your appetite. ... Today, the simple drink has evolved and spread south to encompass those glorious couple of hours all over Italy – generally between 7pm and 9pm – when Italians meet to relax over a glass of wine or a light cocktail. While aperitifs help you get hungry for the meal, digestifs help you wind down and digest that delicious meal you just devoured.

MEAT MARKET

If there were any cardinal rules in our “Meat and Potato” business, the phrase “Steak goes best with Cabernet” would probably be one of them. This may have been true when our founder, Alan Stillman opened Smith & Wollensky back in the 1970’s. However, much has happened in the world of wine since then. So this begs the question: Is this Steak = Cabernet rule still the golden rule? In this section we call the Meat Market, our team has hand-picked a short but diverse list of wines that will work well with any of our cuts of steak.

DuMOL ‘Wild Mountainside’ 2018 Syrah Russian River Valley 152

Each bottling is built in the vineyard. Soil types, microclimates, plant material, maturity levels, how the vines react to the growing conditions, there are so many detailed variables. The nuance, the depth and complexity of the fruit that results from those variables is the aim to achieve and translate to bottle: purity, vibrancy, freshness, and intensity without heaviness.

Livio Felluga ‘Sossó’ Red Blend 199 2015, Friuli

After World War II Livio Felluga was convinced that only high-quality viticulture could breathe new life into the Friulian countryside. With hard work he began to restore old vineyards and plant new ones, introducing innovative ideas and techniques that would help him in the coming years create one of Friuli’s most impressive wineries. This would earn him a universally acknowledged reputation as the man who re-established Friuli’s winemaking heritage.

The Syrahs are powerful and dense with aromas of plum, cherry, lavender, violets, spice, cassis, chocolate, and anise. The Grenaches are lighter in body but still concentrated with notes of black raspberries, dried herbs, vanilla, and licorice.

Colgin IX Estate 2012 Syrah Napa 450

Colgin is sold only to select restaurants and individual clients who are fortunate enough to be on their mailing list.
