The 1980s and 1990s saw the rise of the Napa Valley “Cult Cabernets”; super-premium wines made in tiny quantities and sold via secret mailing lists. All Hundred Acre fruit comes from small vineyard plots. And each expression —parsed by soil type, rootstock, and time of harvest—ferments separately. If there were any cardinal rules in our “Meat and Potato” business, the phrase “Steak goes best with Cabernet” would probably be one of them. This may have been true when our founder, Alan Stillman opened Smith & Wollensky back in the 1970’s. However, much has happened in the world of wine since then. So this begs the question: Is this Steak = Cabernet rule still the golden rule? In this section we call the Meat Market, our team has hand-picked a short but diverse list of wines that will work well with any of our cuts of steak.

Oddero Barbera d’Asti, 2018, Piedmont, IT 98
Poderi e Cantine Oddero is a historical brand among Barolo producers. The winery’s roots go back to the end of the 18th century when their ancestors began to make wine under their own name. The wine cellars, located in the frazione Santa Maria of La Morra, are raised up on a natural terrace and overlook the hills of the Langhe.

Paradigm 2019 Cabernet Franc Oakville, Napa 265
Paradigm is made by former Screaming Eagle Winemaker Heidi Peterson-Barrett on a 50 acre parcel of land right next door to the Screaming Eagle estate. For the Paradigm wines, Heidi does everything from grape to bottle by hand in a meticulous fashion. This Cabernet Franc has a plush mouthfeel with flavors of ripe blueberries, black tea, cedar, and peppery spice.
