HUNDRED ACRE
All Hundred Acre fruit comes from small vineyard plots. And each expression—parsed by soil type, rootstock, and time of harvest—ferments separately. If there were any cardinal rules in our “Meat and Potato” business, the phrase “Steak goes best with Cabernet” would probably be one of them. This may have been true when our founder, Alan Stillman opened Smith & Wollensky back in the 1970’s. However, much has happened in the world of wine since then. So this begs the question: Is this Steak = Cabernet rule still the golden rule? In this section we call the Meat Market, our team has hand-picked a short but diverse list of wines that will work well with any of our cuts of steak.

Oddero Barbera d’Asti, 2018, Piedmont, IT
Poderi e Cantine Oddero is a historical brand among Barolo producers. The winery’s roots go back to the end of the 18th century when their ancestors began to make wine under their own name. The wine cellars, located in the frazione Santa Maria di La Morra, are raised up on a natural terrace and overlook the hills of the Langhe.

Bodegas Norton ‘Lote Negro’ Malbec, 2018 Uco Valley, AR

Livio Felluga ‘Sossó’ Red Blend 2015, Friuli
After World War II Livio Felluga was convinced that only high-quality viticulture could breathe new life into the Friulian countryside. Elaine and Manfred Krankl have reached superstardom with their tiny production and even harder to find wines. Robert Parker called these his “unicorn wines”. The Syrahs are powerful and dense with aromas of plum, cherry, lavender, violets, spice, cassis, chocolate, and anise. The Grenaches are lighter in body but still concentrated with notes of black raspberries, dried herbs, vanilla, and licorice.

The total extension of the company is equal to 100 hectares, of which 20 are cultivated with vineyards, 20 with olive groves and the rest with woods. This wine is made up of 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Sauvignon.

Fortunate Son ‘The Diplomat’ 2018 Red Blend, Napa
Fortunate Son ‘The Warrior’ 2018 Cabernet, Napa

The 2018 vintage of Fortunate Son was made at Hundred Acre’s underground winery: The RING. In the future, Fortunate Son will be crafted at their new winery: The Fortunate Son Winery at the Historic David Fulton Vineyard Established in 1860.
