NATIONAL LITERARY LANDMARK

"The Maltese Falcon" Room - In honor of author Dashiell Hammett

This landmark was the setting for the Maltese Falcon novel by Dashiell Hammett, and is the headquarters of the Dashiell Hammett Society of San Francisco, founded October 21, 1977, by William F. Nolan and Jack Kaplan. Both aided in establishing "The Maltese Falcon Room" and have been guides in the "Hammett Walks" around the city of San Francisco. The society was created to honor an individual who has made history in the literary world and grants official
