THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

AT WYNWOOD'S FIRST-EVER ROOFTOP BAR, THE VIEWS AND THE COCKTAILS ARE A THING OF BEAUTY.
BY KATIE JACKSON

Block after block of simple box-like buildings made Wynwood a mecca for street artists—and street-art lovers. (So many walls to be muralled!) But now that just about every facade is painted and signed, the excitement is moving up. An extension of Norman Van Aken's Three, No. 3 Social is the hood's first rooftop bar. And while it offers supremely cool bird's-eye views of Wynwood's famed walls, there is also plenty of eye candy 200 feet above street level. The decor is straight out of a tropical oasis (think "tiki chic"). There are live bands and snacks that are worthy of cheating on your diet (hello, cayo hueso conch fritters). But perhaps what's most enticing is the cocktail offering named The Beauty Secret. It gets in on the whole healthy-ish living trend by blending organic vodka with collagen, egg whites, lemon and fresh blueberries. Will it make you Bella Hadid? No. But the added collagen does promise beauty benefits like smooth glowing skin and strong hair and nails. "The inspiration for The Beauty Secret was to create something that was fun and refreshing, but also very healthy," says No. 3 Social bar manager Tony Fuentes. Who knows—maybe you will wake up feeling like a top model.
