"I drink Champagne when I'm happy and when I'm sad.
Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone.
When I have company I consider it obligatory
I trifle with it if I'm not hungry and drink it when I am.
Otherwise, I never touch it -- unless I'm thirsty."

Welcome to the fine wine selection of Kollázs Brasserie & Bar, where tradition meets sophistication in the heart of Hungary.

Under the expert guidance of our Head Sommelier Gábor Becker, this wine list has been thoughtfully composed to reflect both the rich viticultural heritage of Hungary and the finest expressions of the world's most prestigious wine regions.

From the mineral-driven Furmints of Tokaj to the legendary Grand Crus of Burgundy and the powerhouses of Bordeaux, each bottle tells a story of place, passion, and craftsmanship.

Whether you're indulging in a rare vintage of Tokaji Aszú, a structured Villány red, or a refined glass of Champagne, our goal is to offer a memorable and elevated wine experience for every palate and occasion.

The Szepsy family has been producing Tokaj wines since the 1500's with an uncompromising focus on quality. Their family history is deeply linked to the production of the Tokaj Aszú wine, and in 1631, Szepsy Laczko Mate was the first person to document its production.

Today, under the direction of István Szepsy – the eighteenth generation – and his son, István Jr., the same standards remain, continuing the family tradition of striving towards perfection.

The estate comprises of 52 hectares planted with vines that are 40 years of age on average, including 6 Grand Cru and 6 Premier Cru vineyards, situated on steep slopes, at high altitude and on rocky, volcanic soils.

As all great winemakers, Szepsy's philosophy is all about preserving the quality of fruit and not about sleight of hand in the winery. All grapes are hand harvested, while fermentation and maturation takes place in wood.

With such a focus on quality, yields are often ridiculously low.

In 2022, Szepsy's excellence was recognised at the Golden Vines – the Oscars of the wine world – when they were named Best Fine Wine Producer in Europe, and István Szepsy was recognised with the Macallan Golden Vines Hall of Fame award.
