Troy Garity, the son of Jane Fonda, plays Paul Sorvino’s son-in-law in the indie feature “Lily of the Feast,” directed by “Sopranos” alum Federico Castelluccio.

Michael Ricigliano Jr., who wrote and is a co-executive-producer of the movie, threw a dinner for 35 cast and crew members the other night at Antica Pesa in Williamsburg, the Brooklyn neighborhood where they will be filming for the next month. “Lily of the Feast” tells the story of a banker with a rare gift for memorizing numbers who is caught up in an aging gangster’s bid for power.

The large group went through a five-course meal with various wines amid interruptions from fans who came over for autographs.
