

How Bento Ordering Is Different

BentoBox is a website design company that best helps restaurants convert more guests into paying customers online.

Why Bento Ordering is Better vs...

Marketplace

- No commission fees
- You own guest data
- Aligned with you

Local Designer

- 10x lower price with 10-fold the support
- Edits done for you by our team at no charge
- Easy-to-use backend puts you in control

POS Platforms

- Built to drive order completions
- Beautiful ordering that drives re-orders
- Our main focus is driving online sales

Other Direct Platforms

- Simple, one stop shop for everything a restaurant needs online: website, merch store, digital gift cards, event ticketing, end-to-end contracts and more

When Covid-19 hit NYC, we had to temporarily shut down and then we decided to “soft open” by offering limited takeout. BentoBox made the entire process simple and straightforward. My team also appreciates how much they continuously update the product to make it even better for us to use.”
