

BARBECUE • STEAKS • BEER

COCKTAILS • NATURAL WINE

Welcome to Fletcher's – honoring the uniquely American tradition of pit-smoked barbecue. We are an independent restaurant, owned and operated by town resident Bill Fletcher. His kid goes to school with your kids! Bill always says that barbecue is religion to most folks; wherever you're from is the only real barbecue to you. We tend to think you're right. We're true fans of all 'cue, and we'll never claim to recreate your little slice of bbq home. When we opened in Brooklyn in 2012, we set out to create our own individual style of barbecue by melding wood-fired cooking with the many ethnic flavors experienced while walking the streets of such a vibrant boro... & we continue in that spirit today!

At the center of our kitchen are two full-ton bbq pits made for us in Mesquite, Texas. These workhorses are wood-fired with red oak and sugar maple hardwoods, which provide our distinct smoke flavor. Our menu features traditional bbq classics, mixed with southern and asian-inspired comfort foods. Some folks think we have an identity crisis. Like, who serves a natural wine with a half-rack of ribs, pork belly bao, steak frites, and bbq ramen on a marble and brass tabletop with a roll of paper towels? We do. And we love it. What's the common thread? All of these items bring us comfort and joy, and we hope they bring joy and comfort to you and your loved ones as well.

Love, Fletcher's
