MET's three bean and fennel salad

Eat Here Now: The MET

MET Back Bay is a new restaurant in town with a fresh concept—no, really, it is. There's no other Hub spot with a card-accessed, members-only room fit with private tables and service buzzers, nor is there one featuring a ritzy ham-and-cheese bar of artisan breads, pork charcuterie and a variety of fromage. Speaking of the kitchen, Chef Todd Winer mixes new American cooking with contemporary continental cuisine on the menu, which also has a few throwback dishes from the locale's famous former dining room, Joseph's.

Opens Oct. 4. 279 Dartmouth St., www.metbackbay.com
