about cutty's catering

cutty's is a small sandwich shop in brookline village. instead of full-service catering, we focus on what we do best: sandwiches, salads, and treats. our food is handcrafted with great skill, care, and awesome ingredients. meats are all-natural and some--like our famous roast beef--are roasted on-site. eggs and dairy come from small, local farms. our treats, potato chips, pickles, and sauces are made in-house. our bread is delivered daily by iggy's bread of the world, whose mission is to "make breads of the highest quality." when the season comes around, we use native new england produce, much of it coming from nearby allandale farm. please visit cuttyfoods.com for more information.
