MICHTER'S US★1 KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON

Kentucky Straight Bourbon · Kentucky

$110

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: Annual Small Batch Limited Release

Proof: 91.4

Age Statement: NAS (No Age Statement), typically aged around 8 years

Mash Bill: Not publicly disclosed, but high-quality corn with rye and malt

Specific Terms: Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Rich caramel, vanilla, dried fruit, with a subtle oak and smoky, camphor undertone.

Palate: Creamy and complex with caramel, vanilla, stone fruits (apricot/peach), and oak.

Finish: Lingering, smooth, with notes of cinnamon, dried fruit, and brown sugar.

THE CHARACTER

Small batch, focusing on high-quality, mellow, and earthy flavor profiles. Production: Aged in fire-charred, new American white oak barrels, contributing to its deep color and flavor. While generally considered a "sweeter" bourbon due to the caramel and vanilla, some drinkers find the finish to be surprisingly dry, herbaceous, and woody. It is ideal for sipping neat or in classic cocktails like an Old Fashioned.

Kentucky Straight Bourbon · Kentucky

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: Annual Limited Release

Proof: 94.4

Age Statement: 10 Years

Mash Bill: Undisclosed Traditional Bourbon

Specific Terms: Single Barrel · Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Rich wood, buttery toffee, and caramel corn. Some barrels exhibit fruitier notes of black cherry, orange peel, and apricot jam.

Palate: Viscous and creamy with a "velvety" picture on the palate. Common notes include vanilla custard, toasted oak, dark chocolate, and baking spices like cinnamon and nutmeg.

Finish: Lengthy and warm with a slight dryness. It often leaves a lingering taste of tobacco, leather, and a subtle minty or herbal freshness.

THE CHARACTER

Mature and deliberate, this bourbon speaks in polished oak and slow-building warmth. A patient pour shaped by time, offering balance without flash and depth without excess. Built for guests who linger over their glass.

BOMBERGER'S DECLARATION KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON

Kentucky Straight Bourbon · Kentucky

$295

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2025, annual limited release

Proof: 108

Age Statement: No Statement of Age (NAS), but aged for at least 4 years by Bourbon standards

Mash Bill: Often described as a high-corn, high-rye, or "unique" mash bill containing malted rye

Specific Terms: Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Deep and intense. Notes of molasses, dark fruit (raisins, cherries, figs), rich tobacco, and sweet, toasted wood.

Palate: Bold and rich. Decadent layers of dark chocolate, caramel, mocha, and toffee, balanced with, clove, cinnamon, and ginger spice.

Finish: Long, warm, and complex. Lingering notes of roasted oak, char, dried fruit, cocoa, and a hint of mint or eucalyptus.

THE CHARACTER

Bomberger's Declaration Bourbon carries itself with old-world gravitas and modern precision. Rich waves of dark caramel, molasses, and ripe stone fruit open the door, followed by roasted nuts, baking spice, and a deep thread of charred oak. The higher proof gives it a bold, structured palate, yet there's a velvety sweetness that keeps the power in check. The finish lingers with cocoa, toasted wood, and a warming spice that feels deliberate and dignified, a bourbon that speaks in a low, confident register and leaves a lasting impression.

W.L. WELLER SPECIAL RESERVE

Kentucky Straight · Kentucky

$85

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: Ongoing

Proof: 90

Age Statement: NAS (No Age Statement), though often cited around 7 years

Mash Bill: 70% Corn, 16% Wheat, 14% Malted Barley

Specific Terms: Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Sweet and inviting, dominated by honey, caramel, and creamy vanilla, with light floral hints, apple, or subtle citrus.

Palate: Light-to-medium bodied and very smooth. Flavors include caramel, butterscotch, and honey-drizzled fruit, balanced by soft, gentle oak and a hint of cinnamon spice.

Finish: Clean and gentle, with a short-to-medium length characterized by lingering sweetness, soft oak, and a subtle, warm, or slightly fruity (cherry/orange) fade.

THE CHARACTER

W.L. Weller Special Reserve is a celebrated wheated bourbon known for its smooth, mellow profile. Crafted with a wheat-forward mash bill instead of rye, this bourbon offers a softer, sweeter flavor that has made it a favorite among whiskey enthusiasts. Perfect for sipping or mixing, it delivers both accessibility and complexity.

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Warm layers of caramelized oak, brown sugar, and vanilla with hints of toasted spice and tobacco.

Palate: Silky and full-bodied, showcasing an indulgent blend of toffee, caramel, and peppery brown spice, wrapped in sweet oak and subtle nuttiness.

Finish: Exceptionally long and complex, with lingering waves of spice, wood, and toffee that evolve gracefully on the palate.

THE CHARACTER

Pappy Van Winkle 15 Year is perhaps the line's most versatile bourbon. Bottled at 107 proof, this beautiful bourbon can be enjoyed straight or tempered with the mixer of your choice. Produced according to the exclusive Van Winkle family wheated recipe, each drop is bursting with an array of crisp baking spices, delightful caramel corn, and complex fruitiness. The smooth, oak flavor blends well with the barrel proof. Selected from barrels in the heart of our Kentucky warehouse, this bourbon has remained untouched for 15 years and unhurried by time.

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Deep, satisfying aromas of nutmeg, clove, baking spices, caramel, creamed corn, and citrus.

Palate: Creamy and velvety texture, with strong notes of honey, caramel, vanilla, orange zest, and a distinct baking spice (cinnamon/clove) profile.

Finish: Medium-length and smooth, featuring lingering notes of toasted oak, caramel, and dry vanilla.

THE CHARACTER

Blanton's is widely regarded for being very smooth, balanced, and approachable, making it an excellent example of a classic, well-rounded bourbon. While it is a single-barrel product, the flavor profile remains relatively consistent, generally avoiding overly aggressive, high-proof harshness. It is best enjoyed neat or with a few rocks.

Specific Terms: Uncut and Unfiltered Single Barrel

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Intense caramel, vanilla, oak, and dark chocolate, with hints of red fruit, orange peel, and apricot.

Palate: Thick, syrupy, and oily texture. Prominent flavors include heavy vanilla, dark fruit (blackberry, cherry), brown sugar, toasted oak, and baking spices (cinnamon, clove).

Finish: Very long, warm, and dry. Dominated by oak, leather, spiced chocolate, and toffee.

THE CHARACTER

Blanton's Straight From The Barrel (SFTB) with a dump date of 9-8-2025 is a high-proof, single-barrel bourbon known for its rich, bold, and powerful profile. Because it is a single-barrel product, the specific "character" or flavor profile can vary slightly between barrels, but a release from this date typically aligns with the robust, uncut nature of the SFTB line.

Palate: Bold and full-bodied with notes of caramel, roasted peanuts, sweet toffee, and spicy rye.

Finish: Long and warming, featuring lingering hints of sweet tobacco, campfire smoke, and honeyed oak.

THE CHARACTER

Unlike anything you have ever tasted, Booker's is one of the only uncut, unfiltered, straight-from-the-barrel, bourbons available today. It's bottled at its natural proof of between 121 and 127, and aged between six and eight years. Booker's Bourbon delivers a range of intense flavors from oak tannin and smoky vanilla to lighter tones of mocha and coffee. Add spring water to customize the taste and finish to your palate. The complexity provided by this straight-from-the-barrel bourbon makes Booker's the rarest, absolute best bourbon you'll ever taste.

Palate: Big and bold with vanilla cream, oak spice, caramel, roasted nuts, milk chocolate, cinnamon, charred oak, and classic Booker's barrel strength intensity.

Finish: Long, warming, and flavorful with lingering oak, spice, caramel sweetness, vanilla, and a full-bodied bourbon heat.

THE CHARACTER

The name "Milkshake Batch" comes from a personal Noe family tradition tied to Booker Noe, who was known for adding bourbon to homemade chocolate malted milkshakes. That story gives this batch a fun, nostalgic identity while the whiskey itself stays unmistakably Booker's: big, full-bodied, oak-forward, and deeply flavorful.

Year of Release: Spring 2026

Proof: 122.6

Age Statement: 4-14 years

Mash Bill: 77% Corn, 13% Rye, 10% Malted Barley

Specific Terms: Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Signature Beam nuttiness paired with deep brown sugar, toasted oak, and notes of fig, raisin, cherry cola, and leather.

Palate: Rich dark fruit jam and creamy caramel combined with baking spices, tobacco, and vanilla.

Finish: Exceptionally long and layered, with trailing hints of seasoned oak, dark chocolate, and cinnamon spice.

THE CHARACTER

“All the Wiser” represents the 10th chapter of the main series. This expression includes six bourbons from one of several Beam labels. The oldest one is a 14 year old from Basil Hayden—an entry-level brand that isn’t especially known for its big age statements. That whiskey is joined by two parcels of Knob Creek, one aged for 11 years, and the other 9. Next comes a notably old Booker’s, clocking in at 10 years old compared to the brand’s typical 7 years. There’s also a 9 year old from Baker’s, a very underrated single barrel label that often goes overlooked compared to its more prominent stablemates. All of these well-aged ingredients are rounded out by a 4 year old Jim Beam bourbon that was double-finished in toasted bourbon barrels and sherry casks

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Aromas include bright notes of fresh apple and pear, rich caramel, toasted oak, and a subtle hint of barrel char. Some reviewers also noted brown sugar, sweet oak, and a suggestion of red fruits or strawberry cotton candy.

Palate: The palate is rich, warm, and oily with strong notes of caramel, vanilla cream, and apple skin, layered with hints of dark stone fruit, baking spices, and waves of oak and char.

Finish: The finish is exceptionally long and warm, with lingering notes of oak tannins, dark chocolate, dried fruit, spice, and a persistent, satisfying charred or smoky impression.

THE CHARACTER

The blend's components—a 22-year-old bourbon from Booker Noe, a 10-year-old from Fred Noe, and a 7-year-old from Freddie Noe, plus the base of Edition I—each contribute to specific notes, such as the older bourbons providing the oak and char, and the younger one the fresh apple notes.

Aroma: Deep, classic Beam profile featuring toasted nuts, chocolate/hazelnut spread, vanilla syrup, and prominent oak.

Palate: Rich caramel, vanilla, baking spice, and dried fruits, sometimes with hints of leather or tobacco.

Finish: Long, warming, and robust with lingering notes of oak and cocoa.

THE CHARACTER

The 2024, 13-year expression is noted for being less fruit-forward than previous, younger, or different-aged releases, focusing more on the "nutty Beam" profile with heavy oak influence. As a single-barrel product, specific notes may vary, but the 2024, 13-year expression is generally reviewed as a well-balanced, high-proof experience.

Nose: Sweet sandalwood, butterscotch, baking spices, and leather. Some tasters also note hints of vanilla, honey, coconut, and light floral notes.

Palate: Graham cracker, crushed black pepper, warm pastry, and exotic wood spices. The texture is described as silky and buttery, with notes of caramel and toasted oak.

Finish: Long and pleasant, with notes of bright cinnamon, clove, cherry and soft oak tannins.

THE CHARACTER

Chicken Cock Mizunara Japanese Oak Finished Kentucky Straight Bourbon is a premium, limited-release (often 10 barrels) whiskey, blending traditional American bourbon with rare Japanese oak. It features a complex, 90 to 105-proof profile, combining classic caramel and vanilla with distinctive notes of sandalwood, baking spices, and toasted coconut. The whiskey is finished in first-use Mizunara Japanese oak barrels, a wood known for its 200-year maturation time and the complex, aromatic, and sometimes incense-like quality it imparts. It is frequently described as a dialogue between Eastern and Western distilling traditions, offering a "rare" experience that is both robust and elegant.

Specific Terms: Single Barrel Barrel Strength · Kentucky

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Rich aromas of stone fruit (apricot), vanilla, caramel, JuicyFruit gum, and herbal mint with hints of oak.

Palate: Thick, oily mouthfeel with caramel corn, caramelized peach, molasses cream cookies, and pistachio ice cream.

Finish: Long and warm with notes of baking spice (clove, allspice), brown sugar, and a lingering, dry oak.

THE CHARACTER

Four Roses Single Barrel Barrel Strength bourbons (Private Selection) are renowned for their intense, complex, and cask-strength character (typically 110-125+ proof). Aged 7–13+ years, they showcase 10 distinct recipes combining two mash bills with five yeast strains, resulting in flavors ranging from spicy and herbal (OBSF/OBSK) to rich, fruity, and mellow (OESO/OESV). These bottles are frequently selected by retailers and are highly sought after for their individuality compared to the standard, 100-proof Four Roses Single Barrel

OLD FORESTER 1924 10YR OLD

$155

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: Ongoing

Proof: 100

Age Statement: 10 years

Mash Bill: 79% Corn, 11% Rye, 10% Malted Barley

Specific Terms: Kentucky Straight

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Fudge, cocoa, marzipan, and cured tobacco, balanced with hints of warm cinnamon and rich oak.

Palate: Notes of chocolate-covered graham crackers dusted with cinnamon, sweet oak, and dark cherry.

Finish: Lingering, drying, and spicy, with echoing notes of graham cracker crumbles and tobacco.

THE CHARACTER

The 1924 release honors a unique moment in the brand's history. During Prohibition, Old Forester was one of only six distilleries in the country granted a federal medicinal license. In 1924, they acquired barrels and varying mash bills from closed competitors, bottling them under the Old Forester name. This expression pays tribute to those historical barrels, utilizing the same mash bill used in the prestigious King of Kentucky line.

OLD FORESTER 117 SERIES: PROHIBITION ERA STILL PROOF

Kentucky Straight · Kentucky

$85

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2025

Proof: 130

Age Statement: 4 years

Mash Bill: 72% Corn, 18% Rye, 10% Malted Barley

Proof: 114.6 - 117.2

Age Statement: 6–7 years.

Mash Bill: Corn, Wheat, and Dark Toasted Malted Barley

Specific Terms: Wheated

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Rich, dark, and sweet. Aromas include lightly burnt caramel, syrupy brown sugar, vanilla bean, baked apples, dark cherries, and a hint of wintergreen or hot cinnamon candy.

Palate: Bold and complex, offering a mixture of toffee, dark chocolate, and creamy caramel, balanced by dry oak, tannins, and increasing hot cinnamon spice. It is sometimes noted for a "chewy" texture.

Finish: Long, warm, and dry. It highlights lingering notes of charred oak, caramel sweetness, dark fruits, and spice.

THE CHARACTER

Preservation Distillery's Pot Still Wheated Bourbon is a premium, small-batch Kentucky bourbon known for its rich, bold, and complex character, typically aged around 6–7 years. It offers a high-proof, often non-chill filtered experience featuring notes of caramel, toasted oak, and baking spice, with a thick, creamy, and sometimes dessert-like, nutty mouthfeel.

NULU TOASTED FRENCH OAK STAVES SMALL BATCH BOURBON WHISKEY

Small Batch · Kentucky

$325

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2023

Proof: 114–118

Age Statement: Typically 5 to 7 years of primary aging plus 6 to 9 months finishing in honey casks

Mash Bill: 75% Corn, 21% Rye and 4% Barley Malt.

Specific Terms: Small Batch

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Dominant notes of wildflower honey, vanilla, caramelized lemon zest and toasted marshmallow.

Palate: Creamy and viscous, with rich honey, vanilla buttercream, dark chocolate, and leather, balanced by baking spices like nutmeg, clove, and white pepper.

Finish: Long and warming, with hints of charred wood, baking spices and floral nectar.

THE CHARACTER

Nulu Toasted Honey Cask is a complex bourbon with a distinct dessert profile, where the rich sweetness of honey is balanced by the spice of rye and woody notes of charred oak. The base of the drink is MGP spirit with a high rye content, which is first aged in new charred barrels, then finished in heavily toasted French or American oak barrels, and finally aged in barrels that previously held natural honey. Due to the high alcohol content, experts recommend adding a few drops of water or one large ice cube to bring out the honey notes and soften the alcohol content.

BARRELL ARMIDA BOURBON WHISKEY FINISHED IN PEAR BRANDY, RUM, AND SICILIAN AMARO CASKS

Cask Strength · Kentucky

$195

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2022

Proof: 114.44

Finish: Extremely long and "unapologetically luxurious". It carries a lingering sweetness of maple candy and vanilla, balanced by a "spiced chocolate-cherry tobacco" note and a touch of sweet mint.

THE CHARACTER

Michter's Celebration Sour Mash 2025 opens with a rich, evolving nose of chocolate, dark caramel, and cherry—shifting into earthy funk, balsamic-like sweetness, florals, and oak-driven notes of leather and cacao as it breathes. The palate is surprisingly light at first, then blooms into layers of caramel, toffee, black cherry, cranberry, pomegranate, and chocolate-covered espresso, balanced by sweet oak, pastry-like warmth, and a hint of mint. The finish is long and seamless, carrying chocolate, spice, black walnut, and cola into a lingering, root beer float-like finale.

Specific Terms: Sour mash

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Fragrant honey, toasted oak, caramel, and vanilla, with hints of orange peel and cherry.

Palate: Creamy and smooth with flavors of butterscotch, honeyed vanilla, and maple syrup, balanced by oak and soft spice.

Finish: Medium-long, featuring a gentle rye-like spice, dried fruit, and a lingering warmth.

THE CHARACTER

Michter's US★1 Sour Mash Whiskey is a unique, award-winning Kentucky whiskey known for its "dual" character, starting with sweet bourbon-like notes and finishing with rye-like spice. It is celebrated for a silky, creamy mouthfeel, featuring flavors of toasted sugar, candied cherries, vanilla, and baking spices. It is highly approachable and often described as having a "no bite" characteristic, making it a favorite for sipping or refined cocktails.

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2025, limited release

Proof: 91.2

Age Statement: No age statement (NAS), but generally recognized to be at least 4 years old

Mash Bill: Predominantly rye, along with malted rye and caramel malt

Specific Terms: Sour Mash

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Highlights toasted sugar, honey, and warm baking spices, features aromas of crème brûlée, marshmallow, and dark fruits like cherry or raspberry.

Palate: A creamy and full-bodied mouthfeel that balances the sweetness of toffee and caramel with the spice of a high-rye mash bill. Common notes include dried fruits (apricot, fig), baking spices (cinnamon, clove), and occasionally coffee or dark chocolate.

Finish: Characteristically long and smooth, ending with lingering spice, toasted oak, and a subtle herbal or minty rye note.

THE CHARACTER

The whiskey honors John Shenk, who founded the distillery in 1753 that later became Michter's, and it is known for using a traditional sour mash process. Released annually, it features a high-rye mash bill and is finished in special toasted French oak barrels, resulting in notes of caramel, dried fruit, baking spice, and a smooth, lingering finish

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: 2024, limited release

Proof: 90.4

Age Statement: No age statement (NAS)

Mash Bill: A blend of Bourbon, Rye, and Wheat whiskies finished in Madeira wine casks

Specific Terms: Madeira cask finish

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: A complex bouquet of dried fruit, honey, toasted oak, and hints of dark chocolate, interwoven with subtle Madeira wine sweetness.

Palate: Rich and balanced, with flavors of caramelized figs, raisins, and spiced nuts complemented by layers of vanilla, caramel, and a touch of cinnamon.

Finish: Long and lingering, showcasing the influence of the Madeira cask with notes of warm oak, dark fruit, and a hint of sweet wine.

THE CHARACTER

The Woodford Reserve Master's Collection Madeira Cask Finish is characterized by a rich, fruit-forward and complex profile resulting from finishing a blend of bourbon and wheat whiskey in Portuguese Madeira casks. Its character balances classic bourbon notes of caramel and vanilla with unique notes of dried fruits, nuts, and spice imparted by the fortified wine barrels. The expression is generally well-regarded for its harmonious balance, successfully blending traditional bourbon notes with the unique, sometimes "exotic," influence of the Madeira wine casks.

VERY OLDE ST. NICK WINTER MAPLE PRESERVATION WHISKEY

Micro Batch · Kentucky

$395

SNAPSHOT

Year of Release: December 2023

Proof: 101.57

Age Statement: NAS (Press release states 4-7 years old)

Mash Bill: Undisclosed

Specific Terms: Whiskey Finished in Maple Syrup Barrels and with French Oak Staves

TASTING PROFILE

Aroma: Heavy influence of maple syrup, buttered cornbread, and baking spices like cinnamon and clove, with underlying hints of toasted oak and raisins.

Palate: A "thick and cohesive" mouthfeel dominated by rich maple sweetness, dark caramel, and vanilla. This is countered by rye spice, nutmeg, and earthy grain notes. Some tasters also note hints of animal crackers and dark chocolate

Finish: Long and "dry-sweet," lingering with flavors of toasted marshmallow, brown sugar, and a late burst of rye heat and light oak dryness.

THE CHARACTER

Very Olde St. Nick Winter Maple Preservation Whiskey is a limited seasonal release from Preservation Distillery, characterized by an extremely sweet, "dessert" character with dominant notes of maple syrup and Christmas spices. This drink is described as a "roller coaster" of flavor, noting that it's more reminiscent of a high-proof liqueur than a traditional whiskey. Traditionalists may find it overly sweet, but it's highly prized by dessert drinkers and is perfect for cozy winter evenings..
