Champagne by the Glass

Jean Laurent

Blanc de Blancs

 28 |  110

Champagne, France NV - Chardonnay

In the quaint village of Celles-sur-Ource, where the Laurent family's winemaking legacy has flourished for over a millennium, Jean Laurent crafts his enchanting Blanc de Blancs from a mere 9 acres of cherished land. Jean, known for his flagship Blanc de Noirs (a star on our bottle list), has recently garnered spectacular acclaim with his Blanc de Blancs. Ephemeral yet unforgettable.

Drappier

Brut Nature

 35 |  140

Champagne, France NV - Pinot Noir

A remarkable example of Brut Nature style, the driest form of champagne. This exquisite wine is characterized by its zero dosage - meaning no additional sugars are added after the second fermentation. Such a style is a rarity accounting for a mere 0.8% of all champagne production. Drappier's crisp, clean Brut Nature is a unique and sought-after choice for connoisseurs and enthusiasts seeking an authentic and unadulterated expression of champagne.

Paul Laurent

Brut Rosé

 32 |  125

Champagne, France NV - Pinot Noir, Chardonnay

Champagne Paul Laurent did not invent rosé, they simply perfected it. The Brut Rosé has an intense yet delicate disposition. The flavors of strawberry, raspberries, and wild currents are offset with the intricate, light flavors brought out by the Chardonnay. This cuvée is a balance of brightness and elegance. Fruity. Delicate. Fresh.

Chartogne-Taillet

Cuvée Sainte Anne 1er Cru

 65 |  225

Champagne, France NV - Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier

From vineyards originally planted over 14 centuries ago, this radiant champagne captivates with a bouquet of orchard fruits, citrus zest, almond, and subtle floral notes. The vineyards of Chartogne-Taillet are tenderly plowed by horse, and the majority of vineyard labor is conducted by hand, ensuring a gentle touch with nature. The epitome of a "grower" champagne. This production was limited to only 1000 highly sought after cases.
