So you've come to Coquette and looked at the wine list. Not sure what to try? Allow me to help, if you want to be the life of the party or get it started look no further. This natural sparkling rosé comes from the heart of northern Italy. Here the two bubbly brothers Marco and Luca are doing new-school versions of lambrusco! Expect bursts of juicy red berries, with a hazy hint of citrus. The wine is equally as fun as it is to pronounce.

One of my favorite things to do is to seek out unassuming, well aged white wines on restaurant lists. If you've never had the grape Chenin Blanc, let this masterpiece example be your first. Domaine du Petit Metris is a paragon of Loire valley wines. Their whites are under the radar, and over-deliver. If you like wines with the finesse and attention of white burgundy, then look no further and try this!

A new age wine from an old school region. Sesti opts out of the Brunello di Montalcino mandate of aging, and instead only ages this Sangiovese for 1 year. It's what I like to call a "baby Brunello" If you like wines with the finesse and attention of Tuscany, and enjoy smooth tannins, cherries and fennel, then this wine is for you.
