NEW YEARS EVE Guide in NYC

By: Marina Kennedy    Dec. 22, 2023

It's almost here. New Year's Eve in the city is one of the most exciting times of the year. We have rounded up opportunities for dining and so much more for you to ring out the old and ring in the new. It's time to make reservations for all the fun you can find with these 12 great dining and celebratory venues.

Philippe Chow on the Upper East Side is offering three distinct New Year's Eve experiences with multiple seatings, including a 16-course tasting menu available from 7PM onward at both its Upper East Side and Downtown locations for $175 per person. Menu highlights include Chicken Satay, Wok Fried or Sautéed Lobster, Peking Duck and Cotton Candy Baked Alaska flambéed tableside. In addition to the standard tasting menu, guests can elevate their celebration with the Golden Package which includes a bottle of Perrier-Jouët Grand Brut ($250pp), or the Platinum Package, which includes a bottle of Moët & Chandon Nectar Imperial Rosé ($325pp). Larger parties can also opt for a private dining experience in the Wine Cellar for $500 per person.
