

yelpseattle In honour of #InternationalWomensDay we wanted to highlight a woman-owned business in Seattle, @kelly_cannoli ! • "Kelly is a Jersey Girl who grew up immersed in the local Italian culture. She spent over 10 years working in Italian Restaurants and hours in kitchens learning family recipes. Back East, homemade cannoli were a part of every cultural event and celebration. In 1988, Kelly learned the art of making authentic Sicilian Cannoli and has carried that recipe with her into her own business many years later." •

Kelly now owns and operates Kelly Cannoli in Seattle and Yelpers love it! Everyone go check out her business on #Yelp or stop in her shop for a delicious #cannoli ! #YelpSeattle #WomenOwned #Foodie
