PICKUP & FULL-SERVICE CATERING

Whether you are hosting a small gathering or a large celebration, choose the catering option that works for you.

PICKUP CATERING
Choose your meats, sides, and condiments—including pickles, onions, and jalapeños—and we will have everything packaged and ready for you to pick up and serve.

Picking up days before your event? Our chilled option includes reheating instructions. Please bring insulated coolers or containers to keep your food hot or cold during transport.

FULL-SERVICE CATERING
Enjoy your event while we take care of the catering. Choose your meats and sides, and we will provide all the fixins'—BBQ sauce, pickles, onions, and jalapeños—plus heavy-duty paper plates, plastic utensils, paper towels, and serving utensils. For weddings we supply formal plastic plates and dinner napkins instead of paper towels.

Our team arrives approximately one hour before your scheduled serving time to arrange your tables buffet-style and set up the food. During service, we assist your guests as needed, then package the leftovers before departing. All food containers are disposable for easy cleanup. We charge for Full-Service Catering on a per plate basis and typically service a minimum of 75 people. Inquire for details.

Portion Planning Reference

A common question we get here at BBQ2U is "How many people will one portion feed?" The table below provides a rough guideline to assist in the planning process. The goal here is to just give a starting point. Each event is different and usually is customized to fit the customer's needs. Hosts/Hostesses know their guest list better than we do and as such, this table should just be used as a starting point.

Food Item	Number of People it feeds
Pound of Pork Ribs (Approx 6 Ribs)	2 People
Pound of Brisket	2 People
Pound of Pulled Pork	2 People
Pound of BNLS Chicken Thigh	2 - 3 People
Pound Sausage (Approx 3 Links)	2- 3 People
24oz BBQ2U Sauce Bottle	10 - 15 People
Half Trays	12 - 15 People
Full Trays	25 – 30 People
