

Fava Pot

CATERING MENU

favapot.com

Dina Chef and Owner of Fava Pot started a food truck in 2013. Soon, she built a loyal clientele and got rave reviews in The Washington Post and other media outlets. Four years later, she opened her first brick and mortar restaurant called Fava Pot in Falls Church. Standout dishes include squab (similar to quail) stuffed with cracked wheat, and baked macaroni with succulent meat and Bechemel sauce. Daniel's vision for Fava Pot is the same as when she was entertaining friends: you should feel like you are at grandma's.
